PLANETARY CITIZENS

Planetary Citizens is a new organization calling for a new perspective of the human condition and an allegiance to the entire human community. It is a very special organization actively involved in setting up an international communications network of people who are striving to create a better life for all. It is based on the premise that people who have concern for their fellow man, people who care, can make their feelings known and transform those concerns into action. This includes people of all nationalities, all religions, all career backgrounds -- government, art, education, science, homemaking. Planetary Citizens is a way that all who share the common bond of commitment can organize and strengthen themselves to more quickly reach their goal -- a harmonious planet that will be able to sustain human life and love for thousands of years to come. It is also a people-to-people program outside and above politics and ideologies.

To fulfill this goal, many things must be done. The first step is to more deeply understand the common problems which confront all members of the human race. There are basic issues that must be dealt with and ultimately answered as world citizens with a concern for the human family which encompasses all nationalities -- food and famine; population; environment/ecology; poverty and new world economic order; disarmament, peace and international justice; human rights; new consciousness, new psychologies and man's search for reality; the structures and values of the emerging new world society.

Planetary Citizens wants to involve hundreds of thousands of people all over the world in a network to get campaigns, rallies and projects going the length and breadth of the land. Planetary Citizens will be preparing films and action material on global problems and the steps for building a world society. Most of all, Planetary Citizens wants to involve people in the tasks that must be faced if the human race is to survive, and to approach these tasks as planetary citizens rather than with insular, localized interests.

While it has no official connection or affiliation with any body or organization, Planetary Citizens owes a good part of its conception to a conference held at the United Nations in 1970. A group of private citizens and world leaders met at the invitation of former Secretary General U Thant at which time he made an appeal for a second allegiance to the world as a whole. Planetary Citizens is the result of that call for a broader allegiance. Thus Planetary Citizens had its genesis within the living heart of the United Nations, but has no official UN capacity.

At present partly symbolic since it has not as yet been recognized or adopted by individual nations or by the UN, Planetary Citizens does provide a focus to make world citizenship become a reality. The planetary citizen recognizes his or her membership in the human community. There is an allegiance to mankind, while reaffirming allegiance to family, community, state and nation. However, as a member of the human family, the good of the world community is a first concern.

The planetary citizen may be one who wishes to add his or her name to the number who want to vote for world citizenship and concern. The number is rising, and their voice will be heard. There are programs to assist those members who wish to deepen their concern and to make a commitment which will tie them into the life of the earth person (world man, world woman). These programs help orient people of good will to a new and broader vision of their relationship to themselves and to the world family, a consciousness-raising and reorientation program. Planetary Citizens also hopes to stimulate the world planners and world designers, the technicians, workers and architects of the global society to integrate and accelerate their efforts. Membership in Planetary Citizens is multi-dimensional and multi-level.

...al suggestions of this emerging organization are varied and have far-reaching implica-... . An interesting facet of Planetary Citizens is the Planetary Passport. Available to ...rants for a fee, the passport is a statement that one is first a member of the human ...es and a citizen of the planet. Secondly, it symbolizes the transcendence of national- ...d points to the need to implement the already agreed-upon articles in the covenants ...an rights which provide for the right of anyone to be free to leave and return to any country, including his own (Article 12 of the International Covenant on Civil and Political Rights). The passport is issued as an interim document until the United Nations or another world agency can provide such a universal passport.

It can be used for identification, and at national borders an attempt can be made to have it honored and stamped by immigration officers, although it is recommended that a national passport be also carried. Planetary Citizens is conducting a campaign for official recognition of the Planetary Passport by governments, and requests for passports are rigorously processed. The passport is a kind of talisman of our humanity. People feel good about it. They like to hold it. It gives a feeling of special connection. Using the Planetary Passport along with a national passport will assist recognition and help to spread planetary consciousness.

A number of the programs recommended by Planetary Citizens involves sponsorship and interaction with the United Nations. Why the UN? There are several UN's. There is the UN of quarrelsome and selfish member states to which people react and rightly so, though by no means are all members so involved. The majority of the membership are good world citizens, more responsible than most people realize. But there are two other UN's.

There is the UN of international civil servants, many of whom are utterly devoted to precipitating the next steps for mankind and who form a "mankind" underground at the UN. And then there is the soul of the UN itself, which will manifest as quickly as mankind will allow it. It is the essence of human convergence, human synthesis, human integration, human oneness, human unity. And the energies of those qualities are pouring through the UN at all times. These energies are there constantly. They are there to overflowing and only waiting for the Family of Nations to draw upon them, utilize them.

The call for world citizenship and planetary concern was made in 1970. It was conceptualized in 1971 and launched in 1972 as Planetary Citizens. But major impulses are coming in this year 1975, which is in keeping with planetary energies and the tremendous number of activities which are receiving impetus this year. The next twenty-five years are a threshhold period for humanity with tremendous opportunity to step forward into a new age, into a new world situation. There is the potential for tremendous growth, development, discovery, action and interaction. The only limitation is that which mankind may choose to place upon itself. Planetary Citizens offers a vehicle in which to cross that threshhold.

Since its organization in 1972, how far along is the concept of planetary citizenship? It varies. With as yet no big effort to promote it, 80,000 citizens have signed up so far in Japan, with a goal of one million planetary citizens by late Spring. The movement has caught on in Canada, too, and Nigerians are also particularly interested. Planetary citizens are being registered from 50 countries -- globally conscious men and women who recognize the need for world solutions to world problems, the need for a new loyalty, a loyalty which transcends the nation-state and reaches out to the entire family of humankind.

Planetary Citizens has the support of distinguished world leaders in government, the arts and the professions. It has an amazing and dynamic group of world leaders as members of their Board of Directors. These two groups, along with the eminent original endorsers, provide a strong foundation of support and experience to guide Planetary Citizens to great possibilities for effecting positive change in the world.

The human species will discover its ever present unity. It will focus in terms of a basis of caring and concern. It will come about when nations and humans accept each other fully as brothers and sisters not only as an ideal, but also as a function of sheer survival. By the year 2000, there will be an era of planetary management of common needs to a high degree.

...hat Planetary Citizens stands for will succeed because it represents the way the new world must be -- the way of co-operation and mutual concern -- of putting the good of the whole first. Planetary Citizens is a way of life and a means of growing closer together by building a worldwide network linking people pledged to the creation of the new world civilization.

In a 1973 message, U Thant, Honorary Co-Chairman of Planetary Citizens wrote:

> Only the very first steps have been taken in our program to forge a global loyalty -- and rescue our planetary home from the scourges of war, poverty and pollution. I am convinced that with your help, and the support of many thousands of other concerned fellow Planetary Citizens around the world, we can gradually turn the corner toward a better world for the human family -- a world in which war and national rivalry have been replaced by global co-operation, economic well-being and justice for all people and a new harmony has been established between mankind and nature.

Earlyne Chaney whose quest for truth led through Hollywood to world-wide prominence as a teacher of mysticism

Remembering

THE AUTOBIOGRAPHY OF A MYSTIC

By Earlyne Chaney

REMEMBERING is . . . a story of life after death . . . and love beyond death . . . the story of a quest for a love from a past life whose eyes haunted her dreams . . . of contact with a Great Being from the Other Side whose influence brought illumination to one in search of Light . . .

Do you believe unseen beings guide our lives?

Do you believe unseen beings sometimes guide and guard those whose destiny is marked for greatness? Remembering tells of such a being — his appearance and his prophecy to a girl whose search for God led her away from orthodox religion and into mysticism . . .

Do you believe in life after death?

Do you believe our loved ones can, under certain circumstances, return to bring solace and guidance to their bereft? Remembering tells of the pilot whose death in a plane crash changed the life of this same girl — how she turned from a career as a movie actress to search for the meaning of life and death and immortality. And how he returned to tell her he still lived . . .

Captain Marvin Moore the pilot who pierced the veil of shadows to tell of continued life

Do you believe you have lived before?

. . . and that you can dream dreams of the one whose love endured from the past? Remembering tells of the girl's lonely search for the beloved and how the pilot, from the Other side of life, guided her to find the eyes that haunted her dreams.

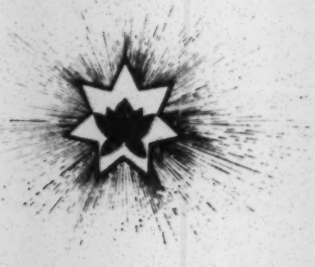

Robert Chaney whose love, haunting her dreams of a long-ago life, guided her way into a new light.

This autobiography of a mystic is a true story of life from a humble beginning to a film career, then to eminence as one of today's outstanding authors of mystical teachings whose writings are sought by mystical seekers the world over.

Remembering by Earlyne Chaney is a life-changing experience. A journey through its pages is an upgoing path into the starmists of your own soul searchings, vague rememberings of other lives, other loves, other hopes, your own yet-to-be dreams.

ASTARA: A Place of Light

Astara -- the name means place of light -- is located in the heart of Los Angeles. Astara is a New Age Mystery School. Astara is a staff of 85 people serving a membership of some 25,000 individuals world wide. Astara is warmth, super-positive energy, and attention to people. Astara is classes and lectures and teachings and publications. Astara is a church.

Astara was founded nearly twenty-five years ago as a place where people of all faiths could come and find fellowship and harmony and brotherhood and light. Essentially a church of all religions, Astara might also be called a church of mystic Christianity. It is a church for those seeking an alternative to orthodox religions.

For those wishing to maintain membership in their traditional churches, Astara is a Mystery School, serving as a bridge between the traditional and the mystical and esoteric. Lessons are published in writings called the BOOK OF LIFE, which are sent to members throughout the world. The lessons are concerned with the inner life, the life of the mystic, finding yourself, finding the waiting world within. Lessons concern the yin-yang, life after death, reincarnation, yoga, meditation, healing, the various bodies of man, the planes of life, communications between the planes of life, and such questions as come from the higher consciousness.

Service here is the key word and concern for members on a very personal basis. Astara draws to it a staff of people with a great deal of dedication and interest in helping. The staff reminds itself that it is a service organization and that every person is important. Warmth and concern is the radiating energy. In spite of the size of membership, members procede through lessons at their own pace and receive individual comments and encouragement when needed. To accomplish this as well as the other functions at Astara, it takes a great centering of energy, concern for detail and organization, and a knowledge and utilization of all aspects of this universe -- a synthesis of the material and the spiritual worlds.

Initially, Astara was centered on psychic activities and was expected to be a local organization. As philosophical ideas were introduced and the Mystery teachings were put into print, the number of members in Astara grew. And Astara's services expanded to include other publications which have now culminated in a publishing and book printing plant, a book store, disc and tape recordings, seminars and on-going classes.

Astara's story has been one of constant growth, and it is now in a dynamic cycle of expansion. Already overflowing its present headquarters, two additional locations in Southern California may become the sites for future seminars from one to three days in length where the ancient wisdom teachings can be brought forth.

Other plans are open for unfoldment. There are always considerations -- finances, choice of a location, so many factors. More energies will be spent in this direction. The beautiful vision is to acquire a place where a larger center can be established which could encompass a museum, a center for healing, a laboratory for the spiritual sciences, and a library.

The teachings of the philosophers would be contained in the museum. It would be a place of enlightenment where people would come thinking they were being entertained. But they would leave with lessons learned, subtle lessons taught of the higher aspects of man and his entire being.

The center for healing would be a place where all New Age aspects of healing might be evaluated -- healing through homeopathy, naturopothy, through acupuncture, pressure

Interview with Dr. A. Donovan Thorington, Director
ICOA Headquarters and Service Coalition Center
Encino, Calif.

HN. Dr. Thorington, what is ICOA? Could you tell us a little about it?

DT. ICOA, the International Center of Awareness, or Inner Christ Orientation and Awareness Center, is a new age organization, whose aim is to sponsor and activate new age teachers and centers, devoted to healing and the development of higher conscious awareness .

ICOA is also vitally interested in all things beneficial to mankind and his becoming aware of this, the Aquarian Age. Many of the persistent problems of humanity are now being eliminated.

At ICOA centers, the most advanced methods of spiritual healing of the total person, including physical, mental, emotional and the various levels of his spiritual being, are being taught and applied.

HN. What methods of healing do you use to accomplish this?

DT. We must refer to healing as natural healing. Natural healing is the Nature of God, and so the term 'natural' is more acceptable to many people. We try to use acceptable semantics as much as we can.

We strive for the highest spiritual awareness possible, and we find, on getting into this awareness , that people have God-given gifts, which we refer to as psychic gifts.

These psychic gifts take us into various levels. Some levels we call channeling, or trance states. Let's use the word channeling, because it seems to be more acceptable to many people, than the word trance. However, there is a very fine line between the two, and when a person is channeling, sometimes he is under more of a control than he would like to admit.

The control should be a God-given control--because, of course, there can be a negative control. It is one of the things we have to deal with and work against, or negativity can prevail.

We use a lot of protection. We use the protection of the Christ Light, and we call in this protection with many different phrases. This is the ICOA teaching.

In our healing work, we have found through experience, that one of the first things necessary, is to identify with the person, and bring him into an awareness of what's happening, of what's going on, so that he can accept the work that's being done, where it's coming from, and what is being accomplished.

HN. Do you find it difficult to get people to accept this?

DT. It was in the past, but now it's opening up with leaps and bounds. With your particular magazine going out to thousands of people, and with national newspapers such as The National Enquirer carrying several psychic articles each week, more people are opening up.

DT. For instance, one of our students, Olivia Skinner, is working with the Skripts Institute. There are thirty or forty doctors on the staff, and she works as a consultant to the doctors. One of the phases of her work is to counsel those who have been diagnosed as terminal cases. More and more, people seem to be accepting the word psychic, as meaning 'from God'.

HN. Are records being kept of this work that can be checked by those minds say, "Well, I'll have to check and see if it is written down before I can accept this?"

DT. Unfortunately, we haven't had the time to keep very good records. We have our own testimony, and we do have some tape recordings.

I had my own experience with emphysema ten years ago. I went to a medical doctor in 1965, and the prognosis was advanced emphysema. He said it was terminal, and there was no known cure. I went to a psychic healer by the name of Plume, who was living in our area at that time. He performed "psychic surgery" on my lung, and I've been going like a person half my age ever since.

Before Plume could perform the operation, he had to generate faith within me. He detected an old injury to my wrist, which I had forgotten about, and he picked up an injury in my foot that I knew about. The injury to my wrist had occured twelve or thirteen years previously, and the other had happened twenty-eight or thirty years previously. He detected these old injuries in my aura, and this generated my faith in what he was doing.

HN. Do you have any philosophy about our attracting these things to ourselves for some specific purpose, or do you think that these injuries and difficulties are purely accidental?

DT. ICOA philosophy teaches that there are no accidents. We do attract every thing that happens to us. Sometimes it's part of our life plan, sometimes it may be a lesson---but we attract everything that happens to us. For example, we may be driving down a through street when someone comes out of a side street, runs a stop sign and crashes into us. It may be his liability as far as the law is concerned, but we know that it was not an accident. We know there was some attraction. Everything that happens to us is by attraction. We carry a very strong magnetic attraction within our being that attracts to us everything that is for us.

HN. How do you feel about trying to help people either overcome, or recognize this?

DT. This is a part of the ICOA counseling program. When someone comes to us for healing, we spend much time in talking and counseling with him--finding out where he is in consciousness and awareness, where he came from, what his background is, what his thinking is. Then we have to be able to identify with his thinking, have empathy with him, and bring him from that level into a higher consciousness and awareness. We sometimes have to help rid him of guilt feelings, fear and other negative thought forms.

HN. Do you have any specific recommendations to give to people who are just beginning in this type of work?

DT. The main thing would be to keep themselves protected and proceed very cautiously and prayerfully, and pray for God's Light and God's Wisdom. This would be the

Healing II

HEALING II SYPMOSIUM IN SANTA CRUZ on April 12 was held in conjunction with Gladden Memorial Hospital and Santa Cruz Extension of University of California. The event was an overwhelming success. This conference was the co-creation of Dr. Ken Pelletier and Dr. David Bressler. About 2,000 people gathered at the Del Mar Theatre in Santa Cruz, Calif. The ceiling of the theatre is embellished with symbols and stars and glorious mandulas with an idea of a brader vision. The blazing cosmic energy gathered testimony to the absolute and transcendent in each of us, (the phenomenon we call consciousness.)

The pulling tohether of different points of view made way for a new harmony where a remarkable gathering of leaders in science, psychology, technology, and spiritual practices made the event a date we will long remember in the field of ecploring new age medicine.

Dr. Carl Simonton has developed a new approach to cancer treatment. He showed slides of a mans hand who has had radiation therapy on only one hand. Special note: Before the man saw Sinomton, the doctor referring the man to Simonton had felt amputation was the only solution of both hands. Dr. Carl Simonton, and Stephanie Simonton, in conjunction with her husbands treatment gave psycho-therapy to the patient. The amazing results showed both hands cured. The power of the mind made many of us aware of the new idea for self-healing.

One of the implications for new awareness of medical diognostic work was shared by Dr. David Goodman, who has done considerable research and work in holistics and holograph. He stated that with the holographic camera the need for exploratory surgery will become passe.

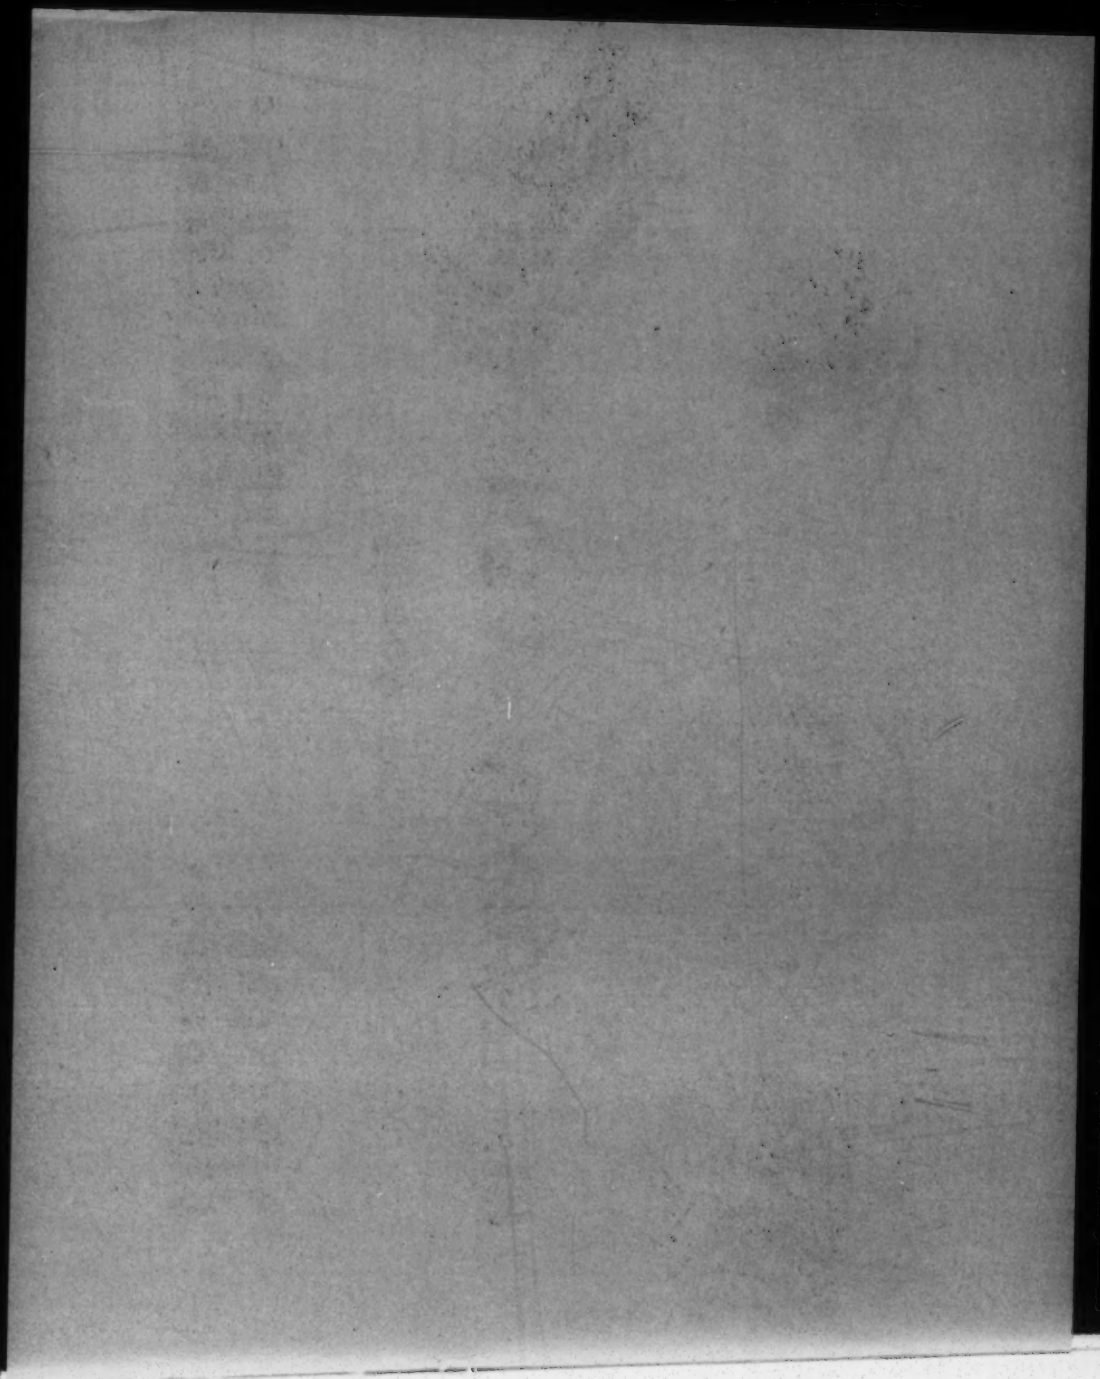

Dr. Norman Shealy from the University of Wisconsin, gave some special positive affirmation techniques to heal cancer and other illnesses. ( Getting back to the old statement of physician heal thyself!).

Dr. Irving Oyle, D.O. from Highlands Healing Service was the last speaker and pulled together the entire program. He threw out the idea that we maybe a connecting ball of energy and that we may not exist, and that we keep creating our postulates and if this is so, we create our own pictures or our own reality - (just the way we really want it to be. !)

All attending assembled at the finish and in a group ritual - sent healing energy to people we knew needing healing. This ritual strengthened the group bond and manifested in each their own and our own ability to heal.

Childrens Art

On April 9 an EXHIBIT OF CHILDRENS ART was held at the Bank of America World headquarters in San Francisco. This International event was the awarding of prizes and honorary awards to the 100 final enteries in the American showing of the International Childrens Art Exhibit which at this time is being shown in Moscow. Sponsored by the Artists Embassy, which is housed at the International Students Hall in San Francisco. Althya Youngman, President of Artists Embassy said the subject this year was "Peace" and students were asked to express International friendship between children, school life and family life. Media used was paint crayon, felt tip pens, pen and ink, pastel or charcoal. Judges were Verla Leonard, Art Supervisor in San Francisco schools, Emmy Lou Packard, artist and Dewey Crumply, artist.

Everyone looks forward to the October International Childrens Art Contest to be held at the Artists Embassy. Prizes for this event were donated by the American Russian Institute from their collection of toys made in Russia. The children were fascinated with these and were most thrilled to be submitting their work for this International contest.

first recommendation. From there they can be led by their own spirit guides or guardian angels. They can be guided into the pathway that they need to go and they can find a teacher. "When the student is ready, the teacher will appear". People do not come to us by accident, their own spirit guides bring them to us.

HN. Sometimes there seems to be a conflict between the theory that everything which comes to us, actually comes from within us, and the theory that we have outside guides. Do you see any conflict between these two theories, or any reason why they can't co-exist?

DT. When their God is distant and unknown, rather than internal, race-consciousness causes a conflict with most all people. The God we know as the God within, the Inner Christ, is much more real. We are the Christs of the New Age. There is no conflict with anything.

The greatness of the Universe, our own being, our Group-Soul, our etheric body, the awareness of all of our bodies, parts of our being, etc., cause us individually to become a little confused at times, and we may think there is a conflict.

Our spirit-guides are part of our Group-Soul. Some people like to recognize our guides as previous incarnations--this is their consciousness.

All things co-relate--the whole thing, the whole spectrum merging together ---- astrology, all the material sciences, the spiritual sciences, they all co-relate, they are all working together as Universal Law directs.

HN. So you see no conflict for those who are of good-will, in working with any of these aspects which would have rapport with each other?

DT. Good-will is a very good word, it is God-Will, which is what we all depend upon. Our material realm, the areas of religion, politics, etc., are all going through a cleaning. Sincerity and good will is something that is very important--it's extremely important in everything we do.

HN. Well, I can certainly agree with that, Dr. Thorington. Do you have anything you would like to say, as a last bit of advice?

DT. The last bit of advice is just what we were talking about. Sincerity is one of the main things. If a person is really sincere, and prayerful in whatever he believes, wherever he may be in his spiritual awareness, if he is sincere and prays for wisdom and knowledge and guidance, he will receive it.

HN. If good-will is included?

DT. Yes--if good-will is included, if all of these things are included, people will receive what they ask for from God and the Christ within.

HN. Thank you very much Dr. Thorington, I appreciate your taking the time to give us this!

massage, polarity therapy, through diet, through light, color, music, through all the aspects that the therapeutics used in ancient Egypt and Greece when they dealt with medicines of nature rather than man-made drugs.

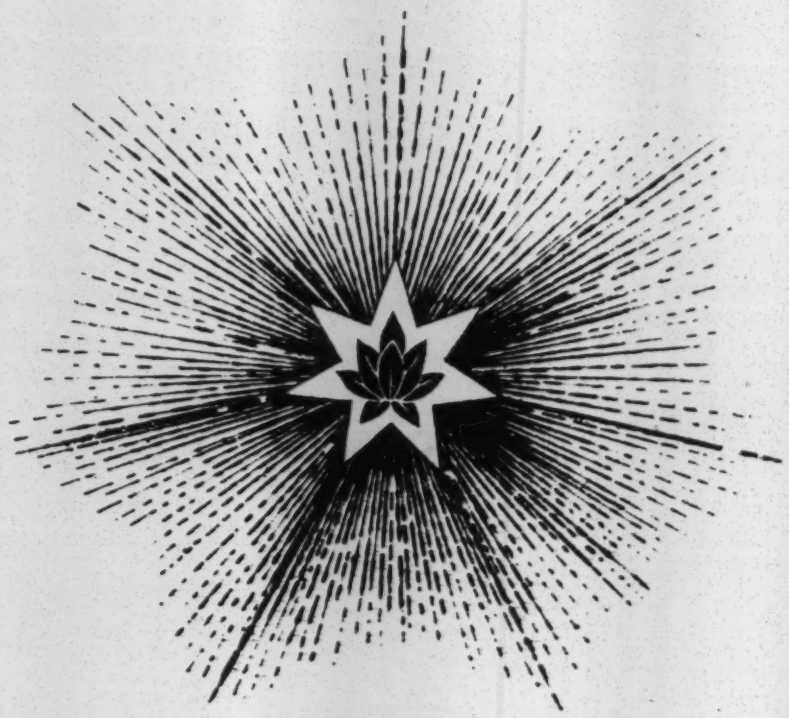

Astara would like to establish a laboratory where this plane of life can tune into the other plane of life and bring voices and teachings through from the other side, recorded for instance on a tape so that authenticity could not be questioned. This would be a laboratory where the whole being might be studied, the other bodies of man might be discovered and measured and proven. It would be a place for the whole gamut of spiritual sciences.

There are visions of a tremendous library, similar to the library of Alexandria where some of the greatest works known to man were destroyed. The people at Astara would like to re-establish this and have manuscripts of every type -- ancient manuscripts and writings of modern man. It would be a wonderful library.

The dreams are gigantic, but the people at Astara dream lightly. They do not become obsessed or attached to their dreams. They fill each day with the best and highest that they can and hope that it will lead upward toward the dream. If it becomes established, well and good. If not, there is no sense of failure or frustration, for many works have already manifested.

Astara will continue to attune to the greater dimensions of life in various ways as it has for the past twenty-five years. And so provide for another advance in spiritual and philosophical thought. Astara believes also that it has a mission to introduce people to the concept that they can become their own priests. And that they can find their own way to life's spiritual expression and spiritual dimensions.

Here is a book as complex and individual as you are. It's not light reading because it's your life, your astral biography, from the details of your inner feelings to your outermost ambitions.

Sun-Moon polarity, as the connection between conscious drives and unconscious feelings, is discussed at great length.

The ascending sign and its rulership position is interpreted as your personality, as your approach to life. Each house of the zodiac is described in terms of planets, rulerships and aspects.

This is not a vague report based on generalities. From your exact time, day, year and place of birth our IBM 370-155 sorts out 24,000,000 bits of astrological information. The result is a 12,000 word personal biography revealing secrets that even your closest friends would not dare talk about.

How is this possible? An astrologer does basically the same thing, but it takes longer and costs more. The computer is simply a memory bank. Only the information that applies to you and only you is drawn from the bank.

All this is yours for only $10. It's the best buy there is in computerized horoscopes. Plus a money back guarantee if your Astral Portrait isn't what you expected.

Think of it as a reference book, to be studied from time to time. We've got the best available, anywhere, at anytime... and at any price.
